COMMITTEE WORK ON TARIFF BILL

Meeting Held in Senate Office Building This Morning.

LIST OF QUESTIONS.

Widow of Former Democratic Congressman in Washington to Engage in War Against Measure.

Washington, May 21.—The first meeting of the finance committee on the tariff bill was held at the Senate office building this morning. The chief question taken up was the list of questions to be submitted to the manufacturers of the country. This list was under consideration yesterday by a sub committe consisting of Senators Simmons, Stone and Williams.

Other phases of the tariff situation will also be brought up at this meeting today. Some light may be shed on the time when the committee will be able to report the bill back to the Senate.

Mrs. W. H. Felton, of Georgia, author, lecturer, widow of a former Democratic member of the House, is here to protest against the enactment of the Underwood tariff bill. If given an opportunity. Mrs. Felton who is one of the most noted women of her state, will appear before a sub-committee of the Senate Finance Committee in charge of the cotton schedule of the Underwood measure.

"I do not want to intrude," said the Georgia woman, "but i fgiven an opportunity, I would like to tell how this bill will hurt the South and my State. I am against my Democratic people, so far as the cotton is concerned—and there are other schedules subject to criticism.

"The cotton mills have been a godsend to the South, almost from reconstruction days. They have given employment to thousands of our people. I have lived among them, have seen the operatives at work, have known of their past and present conditions, and I am not speaking from hearsay.

"I am seventy-eight years of age. My husband was a former member of the Ways and Means Committee and all my life I have been in touch with public and political affairs. My honest judgment is that the proposed tariff bill is going to bring injury to the South. If I am afforded a chance I would like to tell the Senate subcommittee how we feel about the cotton industry."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Essad Pacha, former Turkish commander of Scutari, who recently proclaimed himself king of Albania, has been assassinated by followers of Riza Bey, another Turkish general, according to a telegram received at Vienna. It is supposed that Essad Pacha was killed in revenge for the murder of Riza Bey, who was shot by his own troops during the long siege of Scutari by Montenegrin and Servian soldiers.

Mrs. Anna Kleir, a white woman, of Falls City, Neb., was assaulted Monday by a negro who choked and gadded her, nad dragging her to a woodshed kept her for two hours. She made her way to the house of a neighbor, who notified the authorities. The Sheriff procured bloodhounds and took up the trail of the negro, which led to the Missouri Pacific depot. The negro is believed to have escaped on a train. There was an exodus of negroes from Falls City during the day, they fearing violence.

Fifty pounds advantage in weight, 6 inches in height, and a reach like the arm of a derrick, could not win last night for Jess Willard from Gunboat Smith who earned a referee's decision in the last round of a 20-round bout in San Francisco. The heavier punch of the more expercienced and aggressive veteran counted for more in the result than the bulk and strength of his opponent.

John W. Munday, alias Thomas, recently employed near Harrisburg, Pa., and who says he has been confined in a Pennsylvania asylum, was taken before Justice Ankeney yesterday on the charge of being disorderly in the public square. Munday created a sensation at Downsville and Williamsport Monday by driving into those towns with $5 and $10 bills twisted in and around his ears and in his hair. The floor of the buggy was carpeted with greenbacks. Shortly before his arrest he destroyed several $5 bills. He is a native of Washington county. The county physician will inquire into his mental condition.

Burton Smith, prominent attorney and brother to Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia; Reuben R. Arnold, president of the Atlanta Bar Association and John C. Cox, employe of Smith, were served with warrants charging assault and battery last night after a general fist fight in the corridors of the Fulton Superior Court, in which Attorney Smith thrashed three men despite the fact that he is one armed. The fight is said to have been precipitated by Smith's remark to Mrs. Cora Cash, a witness in a case.

For brutally beating his wife, who apeared in police court in Hagerstown, Md., yesterday with her arm in a sling, George Kline was sentenced by Justice Doub to receive 12 lashes well laid on by Sheriff Snively on the bare back. Sheriff Snively whipped Kline yesterday afternoon at the jail in the presence of several officers.

HOPE FOR WALKER IS NOW ABANDONED

Macon Banker, Becoming Weaker, Appeals to Death For Relief.

"HOW MUCH LONGER?"

Pulse Mounts to 128; Respiration, 31—Sweating Process to Eliminate Poison Ineffective.

Macon, Ga., May 20.—All measures save those to ease his sufferings were abandoned today by physicians attending B. Sanders Walker, the young banker who last Thursday took a bichloride of mercury tablet by mistake. All hope of staving off death has been abandoned. Walker himself said today he wanted to die as soon as possible.

"How much longer?" he demanded today, and then relapsed into unconsciousness before attendants could answer. The young banker is so weak that talking is an effort. His pulse mounted to 128 and his respiration remained at 31 through most of the morning.

The sweating process, devised by physicians with the hope of carrying through the pores the poison which has saturated his system and which his paralyzed kidneys refuse to pass, was abandoned today, to being apparent that its continuation would only further weaxen patient.

He is still being fed olive oil and denied food. Although his general condition was so much worse today, physicians said he might live for days. The general belef was, however, that he would meet the death he now desires within a few hours.

MILANO CONFESSES.

Italian Shoemaker Asks Life Imprisonment.

Antonio Milano, the Italian known as "Tony the Shoemaker," who is under sentence to be hanged on June 6, in Washington, for murdering Harry E. Smith, on the afternoon of September 11, 1911, and upon which he has stubbornly remained mute until within the shadow of the gallows, has made a confession to President Wilson to exercise executive clemency and commute his sentence to life imprisonment. Milano pleadi irresponsibility for the deed because it was committeed in a fit of uncontrollable anger, and says he never took the witness stand at his trial because he did not think the jury would believe him. He says

"I now make a full statement as to how the boy Harry E. Smith was killed. I was sitting in my shop working, and while so engaged the boy rushed in. He did not ask for change, but rushed up toward me as though he was chased in there by some other boys. In my excitement I either struck him with the hammer or threw the hammer at him.

"After hitting him I was infuriated and crazed by what I had done I do not know exactly what I did.

"I believe that after I struck the boy with the hammer that I became out of my mind, and for that reason I can't remember anything that happened thereafter. I have tried to think it out while sitting in my cell, but have no recollection of getitng any oil or putting the oil around and setting fire to the place. I don't even remember throwing the boy behind the couch, nor have I any recollection of seeting fire to the place."

The object of the association was to inspect all establishments in the city and suggest methods for doing away with hazards. The interest of the public is aroused and an effort made to secure the passage of laws which will help to prevent fires. Jefferson Pierce addressed the meeting on the subject of ordinances which should be passed by the city government.

TRIES TO JUMP FROM TRAIN.

Demented Man Followed From California to Washington.

After trying to jump from a window of a fast train, Lemuel F. Ridenour, 35 years old, who was followed to Washington from Los Angeles by railroad detectives, was arrested in Union Station yesterday by Detective Nussbaum, of the Sixth precinct, and sent to the Washington Asylum Hospital. Ridenour, when Nussbaum took him into custody, made such a struggle that it reqiured the efforts of a pair of terminal policemen besides the detective to hold him until the arrival of a patrol wagon.

When he was "booked" in the Sixth precinct station, Ridenour refused to tell any more than his name, age, and the city in which he lived. He had about $30 with him. He said his "home" was "up above" and when Nussbaum inquired as to his purpose in coming to Washington, he replied "None of your business."

After the man boarded a train six days ago in Los Angeles his actions were such that a railroad detective was detailed to follow him to El Paso where another detective took up the detail. A third railroad detective boarded the train at New Orlenas, and in Atlanta, beginning the last leg of the trip, Special Agent Gracie, of the Southern Railway, got onto the car in which Ridenour was to ride.

Soon after leaving Atlanta, Ridenour became violent, and attempted to jump through a window. Gracie prevented him, and from then until the train pulled into the Union Station here the special agent and a member of the train crew maintained a watchon the man, and now and then struggle with him to prevent him ending his life.

SUNDRY CIVIL BILL AND LAROR UNIONS

Manufacturers Urge President Wilson to Veto The Measure.

ALLEGED FAVORITISM

Provisions of Bill Exempt Such Organizations From Prosecution Under Sherman Act.

Washington, May 21.—Pressure is being brought to bear on President Wilson to follow President Taft's example and veto the sundry civil appropriation bil lbecause of the provisions exempting labor unions from prosecution. Resolutions adopted at the convention of the National Manufacturers' Association in Detriot were received at the White House today in which the President was urged to use the veto power.

President Wilson has not received this bill from Congress and he has not indicated what he will do when it comes before him for signature, but the President is said to have told members of congress that he will sign the bill, though in doing so, he might have a statement to make as to the provision against using the funds for the prosecution of labor organizations under the Sherman act in case such action is instituted.

It was this provision which President Taft described as vicious class legislation when he vetoed the bill at the last sesson of Congress.

The resolutions adopted by the National Manufacturers' Association and transmitted to the President today declare that the "moral effect of the provision preventing the use of funds specifically appropriated to enforce the Sherman act, for the prosecution of labor and agricultural combinations violating that statute, in the public mind and in the exempted classes, is to condone the acts which the law has condemned and to make the participants in strikes, boycotts, and all forms of labor disturbances believe they are justified in acts of lawlessness when done in furtherance of a trade dispute."

"Making it lawful and right for one class of citizen to do that which would remain criminal and wrong when done by another class," the resolutions continue, "insults the law-abiding members of the excepted class, offends the moral sense of our people, and under the decision of our courts would be likely to validate the act and thus further the sinister designs of those who would destroy the statute itself."

The President is not expected to reply to the resolutions, as he has indicated that he will have nothing to say about this measure until it comes to him for his signature.

COMMITTEE HAS KERN RESOLUTION

Will Investigate Conditions of Miners in West Virginia.

AFTER SENATOR GOFF.

Mother Jones Says he Should be be Consigned to Sheol, Not Jail, —Fears of Anarchy.

Washington, May 21.—At the meeting of the Senate Committee on Education and Labor today the Kern resolution for an investigation into conditions in the Paint Creek and Cabin Creek coal regions of West Virginia will be perfected.

It will be sufficiently broadened as to enable the committee to inquire into all phases of the questions, involved. Especially will the resolution reach the conditions of the miners in the regions in question.

The plans now are to pass the resolution through the Senate this week, the sub-committee which will do the wrk to begin the investigation next week.

Senator Goff, of West Virginia was attacked by "Mother" Jones, noted worker among the coal miners, in her speech before the Central Labor Union inignation meeting.

"He ought to be sent to jail," yelled some one in the crowd after Mother Jones had scored his opposition to the miners.

"Why jail," answered Mother Jones. "H—l is nearer."

Her arrangement of conditions in West Virginia included a statement that the State could "give cards and spade to any bloody ruler in the world."

A resolution was passed asking that Committees on Labor and Education in the United States Senate thoroughly investigate charges brought against the mine operators.

Congressman Buchanan declared anarchy will result if present conditions continue in West Virginia, for he said, the miners have been denied mos to fthe rights guaranteed to the munder the Constitution. He further accused the employers of cheating the workingmen, and he sounded a warning to the American people to rouse to the seriousness of the West Virginia conditions.

DEATH OF H. M. FLAGLER.

Oil Magnate And Railroad Builder Passes Away at Palm Beach.

West Palm Beach, Fla. May 21.—Henry M. Flagler, builder of the oversea railroad on the east coast of Florida and an important factor in the oil business, died yesterday at his home, Whitehall, after an illness of several weeks. He was 83 years old.

Several weeks ago the multi-millionaire tripped on a rug and fell, breaking his hip.

Mr. Flagler's second wife, who was Miss Mary Lily Kenan, daughter of a Confederate soldier, was with him when he died. Flags are at half-mast throughout the state a sa tribute to the benefactor of Florida.

Henry M. Flagler, Standard Oil capitalist and railroad builder, was another of the men of great wealth who began with no other asset than determination and pluck.

Mr. Flagler was born in Canadaigua, N. Y., in 1830. He was the son of a rural minister, whose salary was $400 a year.

Perhaps his greatest work was the development of Florida and its shew points, together with the building of the Florida East Coast Railroad, extending from Miami to Key West. From an architectural standpoint the Ponce de Leon Hotel, at St. Augustine, was his most pretentious structure. He also built the Alcazar, which cost $5,000 000. It is estimated that his investments in Florida foot up at least $25,000,000.

In 1894 Mr. Flager was a much sought man with reference to certain investigations which were being conducted by the government looking to establish charges that the Standard Oil Company had been guilty of rebating. Requisition papers were issued for him by Governor Hogg of Texas. The governor later withdrew them.

REPORT ON MECHANICS' LIENS.

Piper's Creditors Will Secure Portion by Their Claims on Bendheim Building.

A report was filed today by Louis N. Duffey, special commissioner in the suit of Henry K. Field & Company and others against D. Bendheim & Sons to secure from the latter the unpaid balance held by them on the contract for their new building on King street.

When M. F. Piper, the Washington contractor, failed to settle the accounts of the firms supplying material and supplies for the building mechanics liens were issued against the Bendheims for the balance of the contract.

Commissioners Duffey finds that the claims filed against the building amount to over $7,000, but only $4,128.40 is allowed. The Bendheims have on hand $2, 205 which remains to Piper's credit and of this sum $800 is awarded them for defective work leaving a remainder of $1,405 to be divided among the holders of the allowed claims.

It is expected that a number of exceptions will be taken to Mr. Duffey's report when it is heard in the Corporation Court.

Piper was one of the best known contractors in Washington, having undertaken work of the largest magnitude, when he secured the contract for the new Bendheim building. He was given unlimited credit by Alexandria merchants but just before making his final settlement with his creditors his health gave way and he left Alexandria without a moment notice, leaving a balance of $2,200 in the hands of Messrs. D. Bendheim & Sons.

MT. VERNON AVENUE PLANS.

Progress of Developing Interest in Project to be Explained at Annual Meeting Tomorrow

When the annual meeting of the Mount Vernon Avenue Association assembles tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, President M. B. Harlow will make an interesting report which will show the legislative action taken during the past few months preparatory to securing an appropriation for the construction of the highway from Washington to the home of the first president. Since the House of Representatives passed the bill making an appropriation of $125,000 toward the avenue, which was defeated in the last hours of the Senate last year, the officers of the association have been constantly at work in presenting the project to the new members of Congress and keeping up the interest of those who already favor the project. President Wilson is said to be one of the latest converts to the memorial highway since he made a trip from the White House to Mt. Vernon several weeks ago by automobile.

Secretary Harlow and Alexander J. Wedderburn are preparing an interesting book showing the history of the movement to build the highway, which will be published in a short time. A feature of the book will be the tracing of the old King's highway which ran from the south to the north, following the old Indian trails and used between Mount Vernon and Alexandria in colonial days.

The annual election of officers will take place at the meeting tomorrow.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

GREENE-GAYNOR CASE.

Litigation in United States District Court at Lynchburg.

Lynchburg, Va., May 21.—In the United States District Court yesterday local counsel filed a bill of intervention in the petition of Mrs. Mary C. Leary, of New York, administratrix of James D. Leary, in the suit of the United States vs. Benjamin D. Greene, et al, to recover 400 shares of Norfolk and Western stock which was put up by Luther Kellogg, Greene's lawyer, to indemnify Leary, who went on Greene's bond for $40,000, which was forfeited when Greene, of Greene and Gaynor fame skipped to Canada instead of going to Savannah for trial. The bill was heard five years ago before Judge McDowell, who decided that a contract of indemnity in a criminal bail bond was void as against public polity. This decision was appealed to the Circuit Court of Appeals in Richmond, which affirmed Judge McDowell. It was then appealed to the United States Supreme Court, which reversed Judge McDowell and directed the petitioner be allowed to file the bill of intervention, which was done today.

The 400 shares of stock in the hands of Luther Kellogg are alleged to have been purchased out of the $2,000,000 which Greene and Gaynor got from the government which later the United States Government laid claim to, and Mrs. Leary was today allowed to amend her petition so that if it fails to get the railroad stock she can sue Kellogg for its value. M. Erwin, of New York, assistant to the Attorney General of government.

WILL PLEAD INSANITY.

Alienists to Examine Mental Condition of Dillwyn Murderer.

Dillwyn, Va., May 21.—Despite the fact that he pleaded "not guilty" when he was arraigned a few days ago on the charge of murdering his rival in love, Meade Hanes, 16 years old, it is reported here that the defense in the case of Mott Robinson Glover, the slayer, will be jealous insanity and every effort will be made by the young man's lawyers to have the alienists examine him before the trial begins.

Glover is reported to have resorted to numerous queer acts since he has been in jail. He seems to realize the enormity of his crime. He is a son of Charles L. Glover, a widely-known citizen of the county, and is about 30 years old.

Just whether Glover is feigning insanity at present is not yet known. His case is to be called for trial June 19, when it is expected one of the greatest court battles in recent years in Buckingham in behalf of the slayer will begin, as an array of the best legal talent in the state will be here at that time.

COMING ELECTION.

Race For Commissioner of Agriculture and Attorney-General.

Richmond, Va., May 21.—The gubernatorial campaign in Virginia this year will be of a minor consideration when compared with the contest for attorney-general and commissioner of agriculture. For the first time in many years, there is no fight for first place on the ticket, and for this reason the feleing has prevailed up to the present time that the 1913 political campaign in this State would be very quiet.

Now that the contest for the attorney-general nomination has assumed three-corneded proportions, considerably more ginger has been injected into the fight, and the battle for Judge Samuel W. Williams' place bids fair to reach large and interesting proportions.

S. Gordon Cumming, the Hampton lawyer, asserts that his hat is in the ring to stay, and that he expects to make an aggressive fight for the nomination. Ex-Senator Floyd W. King is an avowed candidate. Both the contenders against the incumbent, Attorney-General Williams are able fighters and will make the contest very interesting.

A royal battle is on between Commissioner of Agriculture George Washington Koiner and Colonel J. Thompson Brown, who would like to displace the incumbent. Political students believe this will be the real fight of the 1913 campaign. Both men are real gladiators in the game of vote-getting and both appear confident of victory in the August primary.

TOBACCO CAUSES DEATH.

Matthew Dalton Loses His Life While in a Well.

Danville, Va., May 21.—A message has been received here announcing the death in an unusual manner of Matthew Dalton, a well-digger, who lost his life near Sheva, Pittsylvania county.

Two men had their attention attracted downward by a choking noise Dalton was making. They "hollered" to him asking him if he was sick. He replied that he was strangling by swallowing a piece of chewing tobacco.

The men at the top of the well went for help, fearing they would be unable to get him out without assistance. On the return they found that Dalton was dead.

WILL OF J. S. MOORE.

Bequests Made to Church And Charitable Work in Richmond.

Richmond, May 21.—The will of Josiah Staunton, Moore has been admitted to probate in the chancery court. The entire estate is valued at $149,559 and the bequests total approximately $100,000. The will leaves to his wife, Jane Ellen Moore, all of the household and kitchen furniture, books, pictures, silver etc., in the family residence at 2209 East Broad street.

A bequest of $1,000 is made to the trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church, diocese of Virginia, to be invested and the interest to be used for the relief of the poor of St. John's Church. The Protestant Episcopal Church Home, the Virginia Home for Incurables and the Shelterings Arms Hospital each receive bequests of $500. A bequest of $100 is made to his chauffeur, Thomas Ellington, and of $50 each to Nancy Poindexter and Mary Jackson, house servants.

His grandson, J. Staunton Moore, benefits to the extent of $5,000 on condition of adopting a professional career and completing his course in college.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Youn Man Shoots Himself While Squirrel Hunting.

Bedford City, Va., May 21.—A particularly sad accident occurred a few days ag o about three miles from town, when David Garrett Greer met his death by the accidental discharge of his gun. He and a Mr. Foutz, from Bedford City, were engaged in geeting out rails in the woods, when the young man, about fifteen years old, heard a squirrel in the woods, and got his gun and went to look for it. That was the last seen of him, and when he did not return at supper time his mother went to look for him. She found him lying by the fence with the side of his face blown off, and it is supposed that he set the gun by the fence to get it over it, and in some way struck the trigger with this fatal effect. The mother lived alone on the farm with this fifteen year old boy, and had much difficulty in getting him to the house and in arousing the neighbors.

Andrew B. Willingham, Auto Victim, Left no Will.

Richmond, Va., May 21.—Andrew B. Willingham, chief buyer for the American Tobacco Company in Virginia and North Carolina, who was killed in an automobile accident last week, left an estate valued at $15,000, according to papers filed in the chancery court. However, insurance which is not included in this valuation, will run the total figure up to $92,000. Although he left no will, the bulk of his prosperity will go to his widow, who was formerly Miss Helen Battle, of Rocky Mount, N. C. She gets $16,000 in insurance outright and is entitled to at least one-third of the remainder of the estate. The Virginia Trust Company was named administrator.

ACCIDENT TO MOTORCYCLIST.

Richmond Man Was Painfuly Injured Sunday Afternoon.

Richmond, Va., May 21.—H. E. Williams, of this city, was painfully injured Sunday afternoon while returning to the city from Petersburg on a motorcycle. The machine was being driven at a lively clip, Mr. Williams being a pathfinder for a party of friends and being familiar with roads. While about half way back to the city the party struck a piece of sandy road, the bed of which for the purpose of the riders being very narrow. While taking a slight curve the earth gave way and Mr. Williams went into a ditch, a distance of some twenty feet. The machine was overturned and reversed itself, heading bac kto Petersburg. The machine is a complete wreck. Mr. Williams dislocated his elbow, got many cuts and bruises and got a violent shaking up.

James Arthur Baker, under arrest at Kansas City, Mo., charged with theft committed at Summerland, Cal., in a signed confession to the police said that much of his life he had posed as a woman, and that he had been involved in intricate counterfeiting and forgery schemes.

SALARIES OF CITY EMPLOYEES.

A news item in the Richmond Times-Dispatch today asks all employees of the city who want their pay raised to appear before the administrative board this morning. Lucky Richmond! Lucky city employees! Hene in Alexandria a score of years have passed and the salaries of the city officials, at least those on a salary basis, have remained unchanged. True the policemen and the firemen have secured small increases in the last ten years, but the small increases are not commensurate with the increase in living expenses. On all sides big corporations are making big increases in salaries, the railroad men's pay has doubled in a decade, but in the city government of Alexandria they have stood at a standstill.

Without desiring to single out any individual, and only calling attention to a few instances that come to our mind we believe

That there is not a man employed in the city of Alexandria that handles as much cash, and does the responsible work for the amount of his salary as does the clerk of gas.

That the salary paid the Mayor of Alexandria is a joke, yet the Mayor puts in eight hours of consistent work in the interest of the city every day and refuses to guage the amount of time by the amount of his salary.

That the salary paid the Chief of Police, who is on duty, 24 hours of the day, is lower than that paid to any police chief holding similar responsibilities in the United States.

That towns one-third of the size of Alexandria pay their superintendent of gas 50 per cent more salary than Alexandria pays.

That considering the amount of new street work which is under way and the duties imposed by the city regulations the salary of the city engineer is entirely inadequate.

That although the receipts of Alexandria have doubled in a deade and are increasing rapidly every year, entailing additional burdens on the city auditor, his salary remains unchanged.

That the Commissioner of Revenue, the Corporation Attorney, the Commonwealth's Attorney and in fact every person connected with the city government on a straight salary receives compensation far below the scale received in communities of like conditions.

CLEAN CITIES ATTRACT ATTENTION,

Former Mayor E. E. Downham, who attended the Imperial Council of the Mystic Shriners in Dallas, Tex., has returned home greatly pleased with the experiences of his trip. He reports having had a delightful time at the meeting of the Shriners, and is deeply impressed with the conditions he observed in all southern cities through which he passed going and returning He was especially struck with the tidy condition in which he found the cities and towns, where a spirit of neatness prevails and where the people act upon the principle that in order to keep a city clean it should not be allowed to become dirty.

Mr. Downham says the greatest care is taken by ladies to prevent the appearance of anything unsightly, and with this end in view they have formed rival organizations and act upon the principle of who can best work and best agree, thus keeping the streets and yards in a cleanly condition. At no time are they afraid to allow visitors to inspect lawns, yards or thoroughfares. He tells of one place where a certain plant had been established, the officials of which evinced no interest in the noble work of the women and refused to accede to their request to keep the premises in a cleanly condition. The ladies asked permission to renovate the place, and their requests being granted, they went to work and soon had the grounds in a presentable shape.

The Civic Improvement League of Alexandria has done much work which has bene justly appreciated, but there are still people in Alexandria who show but little disposition to vie with the organization in a crusade so essential to the welfare of any city.

It it is hoped that the observations given above may add stimulus to their work and that Alexandria may soon find herself high up in the list of sister cities where cleanliness is justly regarded as a great desideratum.

CHURCH UNION UNLIKELY.

Southern Presbyterians Not to Affiliate With Other Branches.

Atlanta, Ga., May 21.—With the likelihood that nothing authentic will be accomplished in the next year toward organic union of all branches of Presbyterianism, following the action of the Southern Presbyterians in voting to consider for the present no union except with the United Presbyterian Church, the big assemblies today devoted their attention largely to matters of denominational interest.

In all three assemblies, however, recommendations urging all Presbyterian churches to study the negro problem were made by a committee from the Council of Federated Churches in America. It is evident among the visiting members and laymen that the opportunity of close study of the negro afforded during sessions of the assemblies in Atlanta, had done much to crystalize sentiment for the more vigorous advancement of negro education and religion.

While deliberations of the assemblies yesterday were marked by less controversy than those of Monday, more than ordinary interest was shown by the Northern Assembly in the speeches for and against a resumption of church relations with Union Theological Seminary. The beliefs entertained by the institution's faculty again were made the object of attack on the charge that doctrines out of accord with the church are taught in the seminary.

After spirited discussion the assembly voted to refer the entire negotiations with the Union Theological Seminary of New York to a special committee. Seven members of the committee, to be appointed by the moderator, will make a final report to the 1914 General Assembly. This solution was contained in a motion of Dr. Mark A. Matthews, of Seattle, Wash.

President Francis Brown of the Seminary, indicated that it was a matter of indifference to the seminary what action was taken by the assembly.

"To invite us to a friendly conference," declared Dr. Brown, "and then to meet us on your threshold with that report, would be like using a club on a guest at your home."

With several slight changes in phraseology, the "brief statement of belief," compiled by a special committee, was adopted this afternoon by the Southern Presbyterian Assembly by a vote of 119 to 64.

Rev. J. L. Allison, of the Second Presbyterian Church, Alexandria, Va., is a member of the committee on Sabbath and Family Religion.

YOUR TRIAL.

When the world is cold and doubting
can you keep your faith
In the honesty of purpose which is yours?
Can you banish every spectre, every phantom wraith
Of faith that's gone and left unhealing sores?
When the flies of disappointment in the ointment rest,
Ofthe friendly trust you had but yesterday,
Can you laugh it off and say that it is for the best,
When you are marked to make a Roman holiday?

When the forces you can't fight have shown their hand,
It's no fun to stand and take it, it's no easy thing
To shrug your shoulders, smile and show your sand.
But if, with all their doubting, you can keep your trust
And know that you have done no meaning wrong,
It's not for you to whimper or to grovel in the dust,
Hold your head high in the place where you belong.

What has become of the old-fashioned clergyman who used to drop in, hold prayers, and eat up all the frying chickens?

We don't know any nicer place to loaf than a strawberry patch at this time of the year.

Where is the kid who had the goods
In the early practice games?
Where is the bush-league marvel, who
Could pitch nine no-hit frames?
The vet'ran wheel-horse works in turn
With other old-time guys,
The kid's back in the minors
And for greater glories sighs.

WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE.

Fourth Tragedy in Family in Comparatively Short Time.

Cumberland, Md., May 21.—Mrs. Mary E. Brown, 46 years old, wife of J. A. Brown, plasterer, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by drinking the contents of a whisky glass which she had filled with carbolic acid.

This marks the fourth tragedy in the family in a comparatively short time, Mrs. Alice Brown Litton, her daughter, was murdered in sight of the Brown home, near the Cumberland racetrack, by Harry Noland, who is serving a life term in the penitentiary. Virgil Jordan, her son-in-law, committed suicide at his mother's home by shooting, and his wife, May Brown Jordan, died a short time afterward from blood poisoning, it is stated.

Mrs. Brown had been living in a two-room house on Third street. Yesterday afternoon, while her husband and their son, H. T. Brown, with his wife and children, were at dinner Mrs. Brown walked into an adjoining room, remarking:

"I will end it all."

Her son jumped from the table and rushed to her as she drained a whisky glass which had been filled with carbolic acid. The woman died as she was being taken into the Western Maryland Hospital.

Since her daughter was murdered and the sudden death of her other daughter, Mrs. Brown repeatedly threatened to take her own life.

DEPLETION OF FISHERIES.

Charged With Being Indifferent to Welfare of State.

Washington, May 21.—Not for a generation has the edible fish supply in Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries been more depleted than at present, and radical protective measure are necessary for its restoration, according to the commissioner of fisheries, Hugh M. Smith.

Mr. Smith added that shad fishing in the upper Chesapeake is at its lowest ebb since the government took up fish culture.

The cause of the trouble is the 3,000 or 4,000-pound nets and other kinds of nets that are stretched along the western shore of Chesapeake bay and far up in the rivers that empty into the bay. Some of these nets extend out into the bay for a distance of seven miles. These nets are a bar to spawning fish seeking the breeding grounds in the fresh waters of the rivers tributary to the bay.

The condition has become so alarming that Congressman J. Charles Linthicum, of Maryland, has gone to work on a bill which he hopes will protect fish in breeding seasons. Mr. Linthicum declares that the states seem unresponsive to the dark cloud of destruction that is now hanging over the great fishing industry of the Chesapeake, and if Maryland and Virginia cannot take steps to remedy the present deplorable conditions, he intends to invoke the help of congress, as was done in the case of migratory birds, which the states repeatedly declined to protect with proper laws.

It is estimated that more than 5,000,000 fish were caught in the nets last year and sold to the fertilizer factories. So far this year 800,000 have been so disposed of.

The bureau has been sounding a note of alarm for a number of years, and has been hopeful that Maryland and Virginia would take some action along the lines that are clearly indicated as necessary now by the recent trend and the present conditions.

MRS. LONGSTREET'S VERSION.

Widow of Confederate General Tells Why She Was Removed.

Washington, May 21.—Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet, widow of the noted Confederate general, had a hearing before the Senate Postoffice Committee yesterday to give her version of the circumstances leading to her displacement as postmaster at Gainesville Ga. Mrs. Longstreet did not ask reinstatement, but sought to reply to Postmaster General Burleson's statement that her office was poorly managed. She referred to Mr. Burleson as "President Wilson's 60-day Postmaster General."

Mrs. Longstreet declared that she was the victim of the Georgia Railway and Power Company, which she said, had pursued her because she urged legislation "to curtail its favors." She presented a long list of indirsements of her administration and asserted that the people of her community, who knew her, were more competent to judge her than the Postmaster General.

"The immortal commander whose name I bear, who resigned a commission in the American army to follow the banners of the South until the last stainless one was furled at Appomattox, and thenceforth found himself an outcast in the land whose battlefields had run red with his heroic blood," declared Mrs. Longstreet, "was not made to suffer more than I have been made to suffer at the hands of that branch of Democracy which is in the saddle down in the good old Democratic State of Georgia in the year that has placed a Virginia gentleman in the White House."

Representative Bell, of the Gainsville district, listened to Mrs Longstreet, and he smiled when she apologized to him for phrases in letters she read, in which statements were made that she was thrown out of office to meet the demands of "slick tongued politicians."

Accepts Resignation.

Richmond, Va., May 21.—At a meeting here Monday, the Presbytery of East Hanover accepted the resignation of Rev. Dr. D. Clay Lilly, pastor of Grace Street Presbyterian Church, and the congregation of that church will be cited to appear before the Presbytery at a meeting to be held at the Presbyterian publishing house next Monday morning at 11 o'clock, to show cause why the pastoral relation should not be severed.

The resignation of Dr. Lilly was offered that he might accept a call from the executive committee of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the United States and Canada to become one of the conference leaders in the united missionary campaign which is to be instituted next fall.

A number of persons were injured yesterday at Lancaster, Pa., when the big tent of the Buffalo Bill-Pawnee Bill show was blown down during a thunder storm. The accident occurred shortly after the show opened and a panic ensued as the many poles, ropes, and canvas fell, burying the audience. That none were seriously injured or killed was in the nature of a miracle, as several broncho busters and ropers were performing in the big tent when it collapsed. A considerable amount of wearing apparel, hats, and valuable articles were lost during the scramble to get from under the canvas.

WEDDING THAT CAUSED RIOT.

Excited Crowds Block the Way to The Church.

Chicago, Ill., May 21.—Dr. Frank Lagerio, son of the head of the Pasteur Institute in this city, and Miss Ella Triner, were married at 6 o'clock yesterday evening, despite disturbances which prevailed for a block or more around St. Precopius' Catholic Church, and in the face of a $25,000 breach of promise suit filed two days ago by Miss Emily Huggins, who claimed that Dr. Legario had led her to believe that she was to be his wife

The disturbances last night were not engineered by friends of Miss Huggins, in one of her interviews she had announced she would prevent the wedding at all costs, even to the point of abducting Dr. Legario: but this morning she announced that she would remain quietly at home and not interfere in any way, letting the courts handle her claims in the regular way.

The widespread notoriety attaching to the wedding, however, brought out a crowd of more than ten thousand persons, impelled by the curiosity and the thought that perhaps some coup might be executed. The church is located in a district inhabited largely by foreigners and they were wrought up to a state of excitement over the prospect of trouble.

After Dr. Legario, Miss Triner, her father, brother and sisters arrived at the church, the crowd made a great rush to get near the temporary canvas porte cochere extending from the street to the church door and the police in charge found themselves unable to cope with the situation.

Detectives who had ridden in the automobile with the wedding party, were hurled aside by the crowd and Lieut .William O'Brien sent a riot call to the Canalport station.

Two subs of reserves were hastened to the scene in police automobiles but they were speedily swallowed up in the riotous mob and more riot calls were sent in.

With the arrival of all the reserves in the district, Lieut. O'Brien waved his revolver in the face of the mob and a path was finally cleared so that the bridal party could enter the church.

Immediately, however, the entrance and the street in front of the church was blocked and many of the guests were unable to force their way through. Partisans of Misses Triner and Huggins engaged in fistcuffs freely, and many women and children caught in the crush, were roughly handled.

Miss Huggins, when informed of the riot at the church, declined to comment upon it. She says her innings will come later in the courts.

WOMAN CAN'T BE MAN.

Rev. Dr. Cecil Gives Some Advice to Graduating Nurses.

Richmond, May 21.—No man likes a mannish woman, the Rev. Dr. Russell Cecil told a class of graduating nurses Monday night at Second Presbyterian Church.

"No woman could ever become a man, no matter how hard she might try," he said. "Therefore be careful to cultivate womanly graces. The mannish woman is a rank imitation Though she abandons feminine attributes, she is never able to attain those of the masculine."

Mrs. G. W. Davis, 107 Prince stret, Alexandria, Va., says: "I owe my health to Doan's Kidney Pills, I have used them frequently during the past seven years and they have often brought me relief after everything else had failed. Doctors treated me for a long while and said my case was a severe one. I had undergone tortures from the complaint and often I was all worn out. When I had almost given up hope, I took Doan's Kidney Pills. They strengthened me and removed the kidney trouble."

CONVINCED OF INNOCENCE.

Suspected Daughter's Action Removes Suspicion From Her.

Camden, N. J., May 21.—Convinced of the innocence of the woman's daughter and her sweetheart, after putting them through one of the most horrible tests of "the third degree", the police are tonight following other clews in an effort to locate the murderer of Mrs. Masy Prondero, who was found horribly hacked with an axe in her home in South Camden yesterday.

Mary, the 18-year-old daughter, and her sweetheart, Dominick Eonhart, were taken into custody last night several hours after the murder had been discovered. They believed they were being arrested for eloping, and were not informed of the murder until they had been ushered into the morgue, where the almost unrecognizable body of the woman lay. The lights were turned low, but were suddenly flashed up as the young couple stood beside the slab on which the

When the girl saw the terrible sight and comprehended that her mother had been murdered, she uttered a cry of agony and sank across the body. "Oh, mother! mother!" she sobbed, and had to be carried from the room.

Eonhart, who was at first dazed by the sight, and then incensed at the test to which his sweetheart had been subjected, became wild with anger and hurled himself against the police, who restrained him with difficulty.

ARRESTS IN PATERSON.

Jail Filled to Fullest Capacity—Girls Among Prisoners.

Paterson, N J., May 20.—Fifty-seven striking silk mill hands were arrested yesterday for alleged unlawful assembly in front of the Arthur Price Mill. There was not the slightest resistance to the arrests. Most of the fifty-seven were unmarried men, who, it is said, courted arrest under the strike leaders' plan to force the county to support as many of their followers as possible. There are now 300 prisoners in the county jail, far more than its normal capacity. Eight girl prisoners arrested in the disturbance, refused last night to come out of the jail when bail was offered.

The bread line at the strike headquarters is constantly growing larger, and while as yet none has been turned away, the rations are said to have been cut down.

Louis Flaurette, aged 17, was attacked by strikers last night and taken to the hospital with a fractured skull.

The two halls which the strikers have been using were closed yesterday by the police, who decided they would not permit the I. W. W. to hold gatherings any place in the city. Crowds gathered outside the halls were led by Patrick Quinlan, the convicted I. W. W. leader, to Haledon, a socialist hamlet, just outside Paterson, where eight detectives and a police stenographer were discovered in the crowd by Mayor Brueckman of Haledon told the intruders to go away and they did.

HUNTING FOR SICK MAN.

Baltimorean, Suffering From Nervous Trouble, Escapes From Hospital.

Richmond, Va., May 21.—Thomas Curran Bateman, of Baltimore, is being sought by the police of the city. The man came here ten days ago and entered Virginia Hospital for treatment for a nervous disorder; brought on by hard work. He was improving rapidly, and it was expected he would be discharged from the hospital within a few days. Monday morning when the nurse went to the room to give the patient a dose of medicine the nurse found that the bed was empty, the man's clothing had been taken from the wardrobe and he was nowhere to be seen. His son was communicated with at once and a general alarm was sent out. It is not known what has become of him. It may be that he boarded an early train for Baltimore, but nothing has been heard of him so far.

It has since been learned that he was located at Ashland where he was trying to buy a ticket to Baltimore.

The Washington police are looking for a tall negro, who is thought to be the one that early yesterday stole a revolver in one store, discharged it at a man who surprised him in the act of robbing another store, and threw a lamp at a little girl whom he had awakened in still another place.

Hard shell crabs at Rammel's Cafe

"Shun an apple pie as you would a rattlesnake," Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of the Zionites, advised members of his flock Monday night, relative to their trip to Chicago next Sunday for a massmeeting in Orchestra Hall. He told them to put satan, pie and fried potatoes behind them, the latter two because they contained hog fat.
